

“All Your Anxiety”

The number of people with anxiety disorders has skyrocketed in recent years, but mental health experts say anxiety itself is not a problem. They claim it is just part of being human to sense danger or worry about consequences. High levels of anxiety may require treatment, but for normal levels of discomfort, they say we just need to learn to live with it. “It’s okay to not feel okay.”

And God can help! Isaiah 26:3 tells us, “Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee.”

First Peter 5:7 encourages us, “Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.”

The hymn-writer Edward H. Joy had already discovered this truth when he wrote:

*Is there a heart o'er-bound by sorrow?
Is there a life weighed down by care?
Come to the cross, each burden bearing,
All your anxiety—leave it there.*

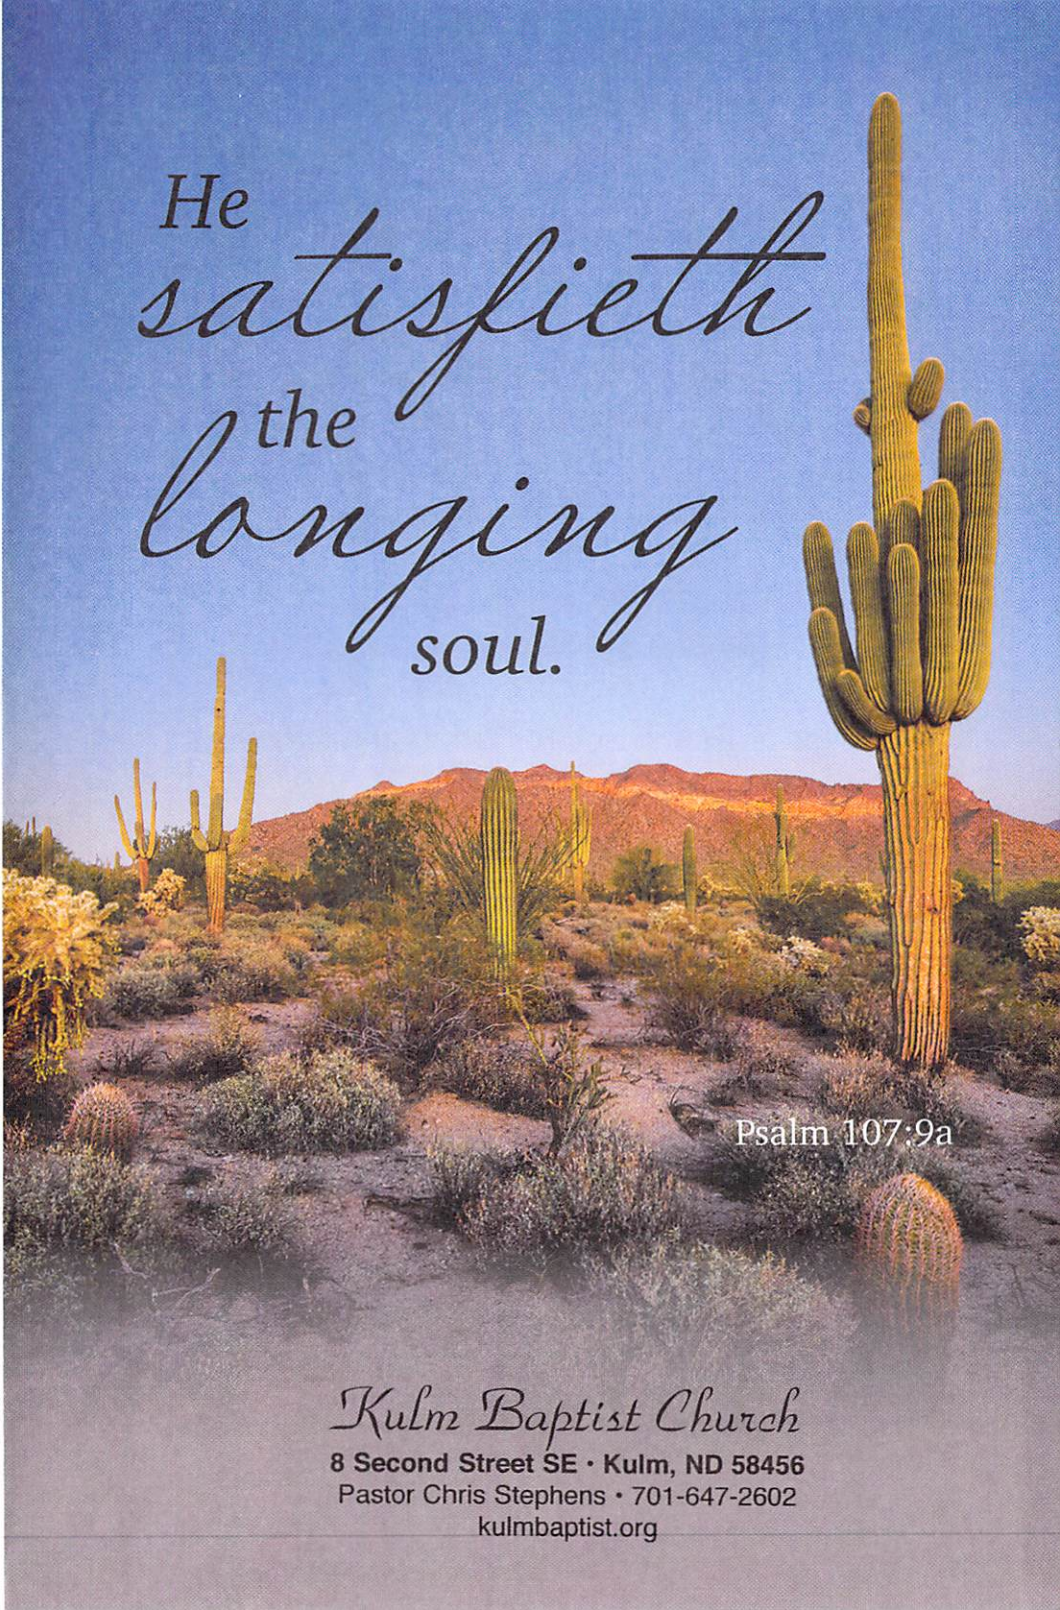

*No other Friend so keen to help you;
No other Friend so quick to hear;
No other place to leave your burden;
No other one to hear your prayer.*

*Come then, at once, delay no longer;
Heed His entreaty, kind and sweet;
You need not fear a disappointment,
You shall find peace at the mercy-seat.*

*All your anxiety, all your care,
Bring to the Mercy-seat, leave it there;
Never a burden He cannot bear,
Never a Friend like Jesus.*
